The course involves online research and includes online grammar, reading and listening practice activities to consolidate your learning.